

www.shopstewards.net • info@shopstewards.net

“If we are to roll back the tide of privatisation and war, rebuilding the grassroots of our movement is essential.”

Bob Crow, General Secretary RMT

Founded in 2007, the Network has held six national conferences, each attracting hundreds of rank-and-file activists. The Network was initiated by the RMT and now also has national support from PCS, CWU, NUM, POA and NUJ as well as many branches, trades councils, etc.

Who we are

The network is open to bona fide rank and file TUC affiliated trade union workplace representatives. Officials can participate with speaking rights. All trade unionists are welcome at our meetings and actions.

What we do

The Network exists to support workers in struggle. We campaign for justice in the workplace, workers’ rights, solidarity and equality – trade union freedom. Visit the website or contact us to find out more.

How we can help you

Do you have a campaign or dispute which needs support? The Network website and emailing list reaches thousands of activists. Contact us at the details below so we can publicise your struggle. We can put you in touch with Network supporters in your union/sector/area.

How you can join

Individual membership is £5 and minimum affiliation is £25 for trade union branches or trades councils.

Name..... Trade Union.....
Address.....Post code.....
Phone.....Email.....

Cheques made payable to "National Shop Stewards Network"
Send money and details to: NSSN, PO Box 54498, London E10 9DE

www.shopstewards.net • info@shopstewards.net

“If we are to roll back the tide of privatisation and war, rebuilding the grassroots of our movement is essential.”

Bob Crow, General Secretary RMT

Founded in 2007, the Network has held six national conferences, each attracting hundreds of rank-and-file activists. The Network was initiated by the RMT and now also has national support from PCS, CWU, NUM, POA and NUJ as well as many branches, trades councils, etc.

Who we are

The network is open to bona fide rank and file TUC affiliated trade union workplace representatives. Officials can participate with speaking rights. All trade unionists are welcome at our meetings and actions.

What we do

The Network exists to support workers in struggle. We campaign for justice in the workplace, workers’ rights, solidarity and equality – trade union freedom. Visit the website or contact us to find out more.

How we can help you

Do you have a campaign or dispute which needs support? The Network website and emailing list reaches thousands of activists. Contact us at the details below so we can publicise your struggle. We can put you in touch with Network supporters in your union/sector/area.

How you can join

Individual membership is £5 and minimum affiliation is £25 for trade union branches or trades councils.

Name..... Trade Union.....
Address.....Post code.....
Phone.....Email.....

Cheques made payable to "National Shop Stewards Network"
Send money and details to: NSSN, PO Box 54498, London E10 9DE